TUESDAY, JULY 17, 1894.

A CONFLICT OF AUTHORITY.

Sunday morning United States troops took possession of a section of railroad in the vicinity of the depot. A citizen was arrested by the military and orders given the soldiers in whose charge he was placed to shoot him if he attempted to escape. Citizens informed District Attorney Curter of the military arrest and he, with Mr. Summerfield, who was acting for the American Railway Union, went to military headquarters and inquired into the cause of the arrest. Not receiving a satisfactory answer, they proceeded to sue out a writ of habeas corpus, but before the writ was served the citizen was released from custody.

Much regret was expressed that the authority of the military to arrest and hold citizens was not determined under habeas corpus proceedings, as it would enlighten people as to their rights and duties.

The town of Reno has been unusually quiet since the embargo was laid on Pullman cars by a union of railroad employees. No trains have been stopped, no railroad property has been destroyed and no demonstration has been made to prevent mail, passenger or any other kind of trains from running. The citizens are not interfering in the controversy between the Union men and the Pullman Company, except to express their opinions, which they have a perfect right to do. They have no disposition to violate any law of the State or of the United States, or any rules which the military may establish, but they are jealous of their rights, and would be unworthy of American citizenship if they were not, and there was intense excitement in consequence of the arrest. During this excitement a man who was under the influence of liquor was fired at by a soldier, said to have been acting under orders. Had the man been killed, the general belief is that the soldier would have been shot and innocent blood would have been shed, as there were many persons—men, women and children—on the streets. The intoxicated man was taken into custody by the Sheriff, and it is but justice to the strikers to say that neither he nor the man arrested by the military is a striker or in any way connected with the railroad.

We submit that the lives of our citizens and the peace of the community should not be dependent upon the aim of a soldier acting under the orders of his superior officers. If the town, or any public street, or part of a street, railway track or depot is under martial law, let the people know it, that they may not, through ignorance risk the loss of life or limb. There has not been riot or disturbance of any kind or character; no menace to life or property in Reno during the present unfortunate condition of affairs, save when a soldier arrested a citizen and another soldier fired at one. Men representing the Government of the United States, and presumably obeying orders, should not precipitate a riot by an imprudent act. If a citizen had fired a shot on the public street, as the soldier did, he would have been arrested by the civil authorities for violating a State law, and the opinion is expressed that the officers should have arrested the soldier.

United States troops are sent into a peaceful community by President, Marshal or other authority, and disturb the peace of that community, they should be amenable to the civil law, unless martial law is proclaimed.

A BOARD OF ARBITRATION.

Congressman Springer of Illinois has introduced a bill to create a National Board of Arbitration. It provides that the Board shall consist of three members, two of whom shall be appointed by the President and the third shall be the Commissioner of Labor. The appointed members shall hold office for six years and receive a pension of $5,000 each per annum. It empowers the Commissioners to settle all controversies between railroads or other companies engaged in transportation of property or passengers between the several States, or between the United States and foreign nations and their employees, when such controversies may hinder the transportation of property, passengers or mails. The Board shall have power to investigate such differences, whether called upon or not by the transportation companies and their employees, and report its findings to the President. It is greatly to be hoped that this bill will be expedited through both Houses of Congress and sent to the President, that the present strike may be settled and strikes may be averted in the future. It is futile to attempt to disguise the fact that a prejudice has been engendered against Pullman cars which cannot be dispelled in a day or a year unless the controversy is compromised. Public sympathy has been aroused and many persons declare they will not travel on Pullmans under any circumstances until the company arbitrates the differences with its employees. If the arbitration bill becomes law a Board would immediately be organized with power to settle the dispute, and amicable relations would at once be established among all concerned. Arbitration is the most rational method yet devised for settling disputes between organized capital and organized labor—between employers and employed. Strikes entail general loss and should never be resorted to until all other means of settlement fail. In almost every instance they are settled in the end by arbitration, and upon terms which, if agreed to in the beginning, would have prevented the strike.

The Situation in California.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 16.—The Southern Pacific Railroad backed by the combined military forces, Federal and State Governments continues to maintain a fairly satisfactory passenger service in Northern California but notwithstanding this formidable array the railroad officials were unable to retrieve the lost management of their freight business. Passenger service, too, is by no means restored, for trains are still being side tracked at night as a precautionary measure against the train-wreckers.

In Oakland this morning the strikers formed into several riotous mobs of two or three hundred men each. All incoming and outgoing passenger trains were so strongly guarded that they were interfered with but the fury of the mob fell upon such luckless non-union railroad men as the strikers were able to waylay going to and from work. Several times the troops were called out to disperse rioters and rescue non-union men. Shortly afternoon a freight train was started from the yards on the Mole. At Seventh street crossing the non-union men in charge of the train found themselves at the mercy of a mob of strikers. Strikers had managed to climb aboard and cut the air-brake. The train was stalled and soon the rioters who swarmed about had drawn all the coupling pins. Then a troop of cavalry and a company of infantry came down upon the mob. The cavalrymen used their sabres and clubbed with their pistols and the foot soldiers prodded freely with their bayonets. In the struggle two shots were fired by the soldiers though no one was hit. The strikers were finally but to fight and a number of rioters sought refuge in the cottage of a striking yard foreman. The soldiers afterward raided the house and arrested twenty-one men. Several of the rioters were severely cut and bruised. The freight train was run to a side-track and abandoned.

After this occurred the soldiers going on trains as guards were given positive orders to shoot anyone who attempted to interfere with any train. The freight train was finally sent out under a strong guard comprising 600 militia. Out of Sacramento the trains are running with less interference. The railroad announces that several fruit trains will be dispatched from Sacramento to-morrow night or Wednesday morning.

Owing to the recent burning of trestles in the Siskiyou region no trains have been sent out on the Oregon branch. A train will probably be dispatched for Portland to-morrow. Passenger trains from the east are now arriving in San Francisco. Eight days' eastern mail was received here to-day. The Southern Pacific officials claim that many strikers are applying to be taken back and say employment will be given to all but those most active in organizing the strike. At Sacramento several hundred men returned to work in the railroad shops this morning. They were compelled to sign an agreement to withdraw from the A. R. U.

There was considerable excitement at Dunsmuir this afternoon. Captain Boulson, commanding the Stockton militia that was serving as guard on the passenger train, arrested a citizen who crossed the track and approached the train. The captain flourished a revolver and arrested him. At Dunsmuir the sympathy is largely with the strikers and Captain Boulson was promptly arrested by the civil authorities.

MILITIA ARROGANCE.
SACRAMENTO, July 16.—During the hearing of a writ of habeas corpus for the release of the three Dunsmuir strikers before Judge Catlin this afternoon, a detachment of regulars marched into the Court House with the evident purpose of taking the prisoners. Judge Catlin immediately arose and called upon all persons who were present to resist any attempt of the soldiers to take away the strikers. Assistant District Attorney Knight excitedly jumped to his feet and met the soldiers as they were entering the court room. He ordered them to return to the depot, which they did after considerable hesitation. Excitement in the court room was intense. Several of the spectators reached for their hip pockets and announced their intention to follow Judge Catlin's instructions to prevent the regulars from taking away the prisoners. Others securely barred the doors leading to the court room and threateningly declared their intention of resisting the regulars. While excitement was at fever heat the Assistant District Attorney arose and waved the regulars back. He then commanded them to return to their quarters at the depot. After the excitement had subsided Judge Catlin ordered the three prisoners remanded to the custody of the Chief of Police. They are charged with stealing an engine at Dunsmuir.

By direction of Marshal Baldwin and Col. Graham, District Attorney Knight later sent a letter to Judge Catlin explaining that the soldiers had merely been sent to the court room as witnesses, and brought their arms with them under a m. apprehension, and stating that the Federal officers in Sacramento wish to correct the impression that they are in any way exceeding their authority.

PETITIONING GOVERNOR COLECORD.
VIRGINIA CITY, July 16.—Petitions signed by every member of the labor unions in Lyon, Ormsby and this county were forwarded to Governor Colcord to-night requesting him to call upon the President to withdraw the Federal troops from Nevada, no violation of law having so far been attempted by the strikers or their sympathizers.

WHAT GOVERNOR COLECORD SAYS.
CARSON, July 16.—Governor Colcord says over his signature that the protests from other Governors against President Cleveland sending Federal troops into the different States will not only be of no use, but in his judgement would be unwise, as the President has the right under the law to take such action if he believes there are reasonable grounds for so doing.

IMPORTANT SUIT AGAINST THE S. P. R. R.
CO. OF KENTUCKY.

LOS ANGELES, July 16.—A most important suit was filed in the United States Circuit Court to-day by District Attorney Denis and Special United States Attorney Call, under the special direction of Attorney General Olney; it being a bill against the Southern Pacific Company of Kentucky. The bill is in equity and asks that all corporations which have combined with the Southern Pacific Company be separated from that corporation, and the agreement under which they are now working be annulled and cancelled.

If the Government wins, it means the Central Pacific of California, of Arizona and of New Mexico, the Santa Fe branch, Long Beach branch and, in fact, all lines which go into the make-up of the Southern Pacific system will be separated and operated by their own set of officers. The combination forming the Southern Pacific of Kentucky is alleged to be in a conspiracy to retard and restrict commerce.

The bill is brought under the same United States statute under which the proceedings against the Southern Pacific striking employees were commenced as contrivance to retard commerce.

A TRAIN DITCHED.
BATTLE CREEK, Mich., July 16.—A train on the Grand Trunk was wrecked here at 3 o'clock this morning. The fireman was killed outright. The wreck was caused by the removal of fish plates from a rail on a grade west of the city. The train was running fast and the engine, tender and baggage car were ditched and the day coach and one Pullman turned across the track. Seven of the train hands and one passenger were painfully injured. Fireman Theo Crow was thrown fifty feet from the engine and his neck was broken. The wreck was done by experienced hands and is attributed to strikers.

QUIET AT CHICAGO.
CHICAGO, July 16.—There was no general strike at the stock yards to-day as threatened. All the packing houses were running with reduced forces. The police received information of a raid by a mob, that was planned for the purpose of stopping all the packing houses. Five hundred officers were secreted about the yards.

WATER SPOUT NEAR BODIE.
CARSON, July 16.—A man traveling between Bodie, California, and Bridgeport reports a terrific cloud burst Friday night which inundated the whole section, doing great damage. On Mormon ranch a milk house was washed away and two men drowned.

AN ARREST AT SACRAMENTO.
SACRAMENTO, July 16.—James Mullen, a member of the Mediation Committee, was arrested this forenoon by Sheriff Wyckoff of Yolo county on a warrant charging him with felony in connection with the ditching of the train last Wednesday. The warrant was sworn by detectives of the S. P. Company. Mullen will be taken to Woodland this afternoon. To an Associated Press reporter Mullen declared that he had no connection with the wrecking of the train. "This is a put up job," he said, "and is engineered by so-called detectives to get me out of the way. I am only slightly acquainted with this man Worden, who is accused of wrecking the train, and I can prove that I have had absolutely nothing to do with him since the commencement of the strike."

JOHN COMPTON.
JOHN Compton, also a member of the Mediation Committee, on learning that a warrant had been issued for his arrest for felony, surrendered himself to the police authorities shortly after 11 o'clock this morning. Like Mullen, he declares his innocence of any participation in the wrecking of the train.

ARMED MINERS ATTACK GUARD.
NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 16.—Striking miners, armed with Winchesters, attacked the guards and new men at work at the Platt mines, Alabama. A deadly battle is in progress. The dead and wounded are reported from ten to thirty. Troops have just left Birmingham for the scene.

TERIBLE EXPLOSION AT CHIENG-MAU.
CHICAGO, July 16.—The caisson of Battery F, Second Artillery, U. S. A., exploded with terrific force this afternoon. Two artillermen and one trooper were instantly killed. Fifteen other persons, all residents in the vicinity were injured, some fatally. The troops left Brighton Park for a long march around the city to exercise the horses. They comprised three troops of cavalry and a battery of artillery. No incident occurred until the column marched south on the Grand boulevard just across the Wood boulevard; then a terrific explosion occurred. The men on the caisson were literally torn to pieces and others were blown many feet by the violence of the concussion. Four horses drawing the caisson fell in their tracks, shot through and through and terribly mangled, while three others were blown fifty feet ahead against a tree on the boulevard dying instantly. The caisson men were blown to pieces, not a piece larger than a man's hand being found. The boulevard looked like a battle field.

OXFORD VICTORIES.

LONDON, July 16.—Oxford defeated Yale in the athletic games to-day, winning five events to Yale three. The big jump was the tie and each team was given one-half a point, making the total result, Oxford, five and a half; Yale, three and a half. Oxford won the 100-yard dash in 10.25; 120-yard hurdle in 16.25; 1-mile run; quarter-mile run and half-mile run. Yale won the hammer throw, 110 feet, 5 inches, broad jump and putting shot.

THE TARIFF CONFERENCE.

The Tariff Conference Committee, consisting of members of the Senate and House, are not making much progress with the Tariff bill. The House members, led by Breckinridge of Arkansas, are determined to resist to the last extremity the Senate amendments, and the Senate members are reluctant in yielding any changes from the Senate bill. One side or the other must give way or the conference will fail to agree and no Tariff bill will be passed at this session.

Gorman says it is the Senate bill or the McKinley bill and the House members say the Senate amendments must be modified or no Tariff bill.

Wilson has retired from the leadership of the House conferees on account of ill health and Breckinridge takes his place.

My suffering were extreme, my leg from the knee to the foot was swollen, and the skin was so sensitive to other parts of the body. THE SITUATION IN RENO.
Arrival and Departure of Trains Under Military Escort, and a General Resumé of Sunday's Business.

On Sunday morning at an early hour the ordinary peace and quiet of the town of Reno, and the unusual quietness that has prevailed for the two weeks last past, was turned into a pandemonium of excitement by the arrival of a construction pilot train from the east, followed by four other trains in close succession. An immense crowd had assembled at the depot, and the townspeople were startled on seeing military troops getting off the trains and in a few moments sentinels were posted and lines were established and the crowd ordered outside of the lines, and no one was permitted on the platform who did not possess a white ticket with a Southern Pacific stamp upon it, or a written pass from the Colonel in command. A little excitement was created by the arrest of Gus Johnson, a Swede, who did not move promptly nor in the direction he was told to go. His arrest excited a number of his associates as well as many citizens of the town. Johnson was held for nearly four hours and finally released, but a civil process of habeas corpus had been drawn up and would have been served had he not been allowed to go. Many statements were made regarding the circumstances of the arrest and detention of the prisoner, and Johnson made a statement himself, but they were all more or less conflicting, so it is sufficient to say that the military authorities claim they were acting under orders and legally, and until the contrary is proven they have the right to enforce order. It can be said, however, that Johnson might have been taken to some more private place which would have saved him much humiliation, or in the waiting-room where he could have sat down.

Just as Johnson was released a shot was fired by one of the sentinels, and the most intense excitement prevailed on Commercial Row for a few moments, and had it not been for cooler heads in the crowd there is no telling where the trouble would have ended, nor could the loss of life and property been prevented had the crowd not cooled down.

The cause of this excitement started at the door of one of the restaurants where Van Horn, one of the engineers, had just finished eating his dinner. Upon coming out he was egged. An old fellow, who had been taking a little too much benzine, got a couple of the eggs and followed Van Horn part way across the street, and in throwing, the eggs came very near hitting a sentinel. The old fellow was so full he couldn't distinguish a railroad engineer from a U. S. soldier, so he came very near getting himself, as well as the town, into serious trouble.

Quiet was soon restored and then the townspeople began to disperse and in course of an hour or two Reno was as quiet as it usually is on a Sunday afternoon. The trains from the east pulled out for Truckee, and about 5 o'clock two trains from the west pulled in and continued on to Wadsworth. In the evening everything was quiet and few people were on the street. Yesterday there was little stir. No train arrived from the east and only one from the west, it being a through train for Oakland. As it pulled into the town the steps of the cars and the doors of the mail and express cars were guarded by U. S. Regulars. As soon as the train came to a halt the troops took their places along the entire length of the train on each side, a sentinel being placed at every few yards.

Petitions Being Circulated.
A petition is being circulated in Virginia City, Carson City, Reno, Wadsworth and Winnemucca for signatures, calling upon the Governor to remove the regular army soldiers from Nevada as soon as possible, as there has never been a reason for their being here.

There has never been any reason to suspect any person or persons in or about Reno of any disposition to violate the law, and the people of the State feel that they have been outraged in being subjected to bayonet rule without cause.

Sunday Governor Colcord was telegraphed to by the Secretary of the A. R. U. at Reno asking for information why martial law had been proclaimed in Reno, but the Governor did not answer it. The Wadsworth petition was brought up last night by pony express, and is signed by nearly every citizen of that town.

BOARD OF HEALTH.

They Make Recommendations That Should Receive Attention.

To the honorable Board of County Commissioners of Washoe County, Nevada.

GENTLEMEN:—We, the Board of Health of Reno, Washoe county, Nevada, by power vested in us by Town Ordinance

No. 39, do recommend that inasmuch as numerous cases of sickness have existed, and do at present exist, in the community, which, in our judgment,

are traceable to unconnected sewerage,

especially cess pools, which exist in certain parts of the town, that such sewer mains be provided by you as to make it possible for all premises to be connected with the same, and that the law now existing prohibiting unco-nected cess pools and closets be strictly enforced.

Furthermore, that all existing cess pools be disinfected, as directed by

Health Officer Brown, under instructions furnished him by us.

In view of the fact that we think the health of the community is in jeopardy,

we suggest that the above recommendations be carried out as soon as possible
